This Week at Rotary Elizabeth Redenbaugh

Elizabeth is VP of Development and External Affairs at Coastal Horizons. Based in Wilmington, Coastal Horizons promotes healthy lives, stronger families and safer communities in 57 North Carolina counties. Elizabeth studied at UNC for undergraduate and the UNC School of Law. While running her local law firm, she served as a New Hanover County School Boardmember. She opposed a District school attendance map that she felt unfair to poor and disadvantaged children and took extreme heat for that stance. In 2011 Elizabeth was awarded a JFK Profile in Courage honor for her stand.

At Coastal Horizons, Elizabeth manages multiple aspects of fundraising, volunteer management and stewardship. This is an inspiring speaker you don't want to miss.

Last Week at Rotary, GLOW Academy

After we enjoyed our breakfast catered by Middle of the Island we found out our speaker from GLOW Academy had to cancel at the last minute. We're thankful that Dennis Meyers saved the day by giving us a moving presentation of his upcoming trip to Ukraine to distribute hundreds of wheelchairs on behalf of Rotary International. This trip will be logistically challenging and on top of that, there is the safety threat. These wheelchairs are vitally needed though in war torn Ukraine. Thanks for filling us in Dennis.

Meals on Wheels

Stan had the winning raffle ticket last week but he wasn't able to pull the Queen of Hearts. There was almost $1000 on the line. Come by tomorrow and get in on the action. It's almost as exciting as Vegas.
