President's Message

By David Vanasse on Tuesday, June 11, 2024

Even though there was no planned meeting this past week, I appreciated our members sharing their hearts about creating hope in the world.

This Friday there is no morning meeting. Instead, the Wylies will be hosting our annual installation at their home. Remember to carpool as you're able. We'll have a time of fellowship beginning at 5pm. Dinner will be at 6pm, followed by the program.

Our blood drive at Beulah Baptist Church is this Friday as well. We have about 10 openings remaining. Please help spread the word.

Before then, we do have opportunities for you to be hands-on help with a few things like:

Checking our toy box at Sunset Beach. Barbara & Ken do this on Sundays when they're on the beach for church, but this should be done several times a week in the busy season. We've sustained some damage to our "box" and will need to repair, then reconstruct it to be more durable. We also need to check the toys, throwing out any that are broken or replacing them if needed.

Remaining activities that you'll not want to miss in the coming weeks and some in the future for which you should RSVP and save date include:

- June 14 - Blood Drive, Beulah Baptist Church
- June 14 - Installation Banquet, Wylie's home, Ocean Ridge
- June 24 - District Grants Training
- June 24 - July 26 - STARS, Seaside UMC
- June 29 - District Awards & Celebration, 11am - 1pm, Waterline Brewing
- Oct 3 -7 - Charleston to the Bahamas, District Conference at Sea (Carnival Sunshine)

Congratulations to Anne Hewett, our 100+ club winner, and to Carl Pica, who won the small pot.

Again, NO morning meeting Friday.

Yours in Service,

David
