President's Message

By Mary Ellen Good on Wednesday, December 11, 2024

December Theme: Disease Prevention and Treatment Month

This past weekend was "magical" in the life of SBI at the Friday night Calabash Christmas Parade.

There are so many great pictures from the event and we will share them at Friday's meeting. Thanks to Jen Vanasse and Sydney Versaggi for their "can do" attitude and creativity in putting together the amazing float in such a short time. Many worked hours on the project and we will thank them on Friday, but a special "shout out" to Jim Devlin who hand-painted the Rotary Flyer signs on the float.

It was wonderful to see the youngest in our Rotary family – the Versaggi, Devlin, and Spivey little ones riding on our float or with the dance group. Caleb Vanasse drove his truck that pulled the float...Caleb has been a part of our Rotary family since he was as young as those on the float. As the parade announcer said, "The South Brunswick Islands

Rotary Club was spreading the Magic of Rotary!"

Please make every effort to attend Friday's meeting. We will vote on the 2025-2026 Leadership Team, welcome our Student of the Month, meet the incoming South Brunswick Islands Rotary Club Foundation officers and trustees, roll out Monte Carlo information, and more! This is our last meeting of 2024.

I hope to see you Friday!

Yours In Service,
Mary Ellen
