Fayetteville Rotary Club Meeting

Welcome: President Dave Baggett and the Fayetteville Rotary Club hosted this quarter's Fayetteville Rotary Club (FRC) wine tasting Recruiting Reception 6:00 PM, at the Wine Cafe.

Meeting Prayer and Meal: There was no invocation. There were cheese boards, white chocolate, chocolate mousse cups and chocolate strawberries paired with three wines; a Shiraz wine, a white wine and a sparkling white wine.

Rotary Song and Rotary Minute: No song was sung and there was no Today in History.

Attendance & Guests: There were 7 members and 4 guests present. Two of the guests are possible candidates.

Health and Happiness: There was no Health and Happiness nor any Happy Bucks.

Club Program: The program was an introduction of members and guests, attendees getting to know each other and what Rotarians do vocationally and do as a member of a Rotary Club. President Dave Baggett gave a visual presentation about our club and Rotary International aimed at introducing our guests to Rotary, what it is and what we do. Dave gave a brief history of Rotary, where and when Rotary began, Rotary's goals and how Rotary has evolved, and Rotary leadership through history. The guests seemed most interested in the Service Projects the Club does. There was also interest in the Fund raisers the Club undertakes to help support the Service Projects. By the end of the program and reception it was clear that two of three non-Rotary guests appeared interested in our Club, mainly because of the Club's service projects.
