Weekly meeting of the Rotary Club of Morehead City Noon 7/30/24

Wednesday, July 31, 2024

The Rotary Club of Morehead City Noon met Tuesday, 7/30/24, at Sanitary Restaurant served by Shayna and Penny.

President Tim opened the meeting.

Prayer was by Tim, Pledge led by Teresa and 4-Way Test led by Pam.

31 members were present and 4 guests: Jane Capps, our honorary member; Tom's brother-in-law, Joe DiVito; former member and proposed new member Jimmy Bond and visiting Rotarian, Kathy Peterson from the New Bern Club.

Birthday song was sung for Bill (Purple).

We expressed sympathy for Diane who was ill at home.

Program: Our own world traveler, Brian Kramer, was introduced by Tim. Brian gave an overview of the Camino De Santiago pilgrimage he and his wife, Trish, trekked during this past May. They walked the French route going East to West spending 40 nights in 34 different rooms during the hike. They averaged about 15 miles/day. He had many pictures of Spain and several other pilgrims they met on the trail. He plans to repeat a PG version of the talk at the Morehead City Rotary Club later for those who missed it.

C.J. Crooks, our new district Governor, will speak next week! Might be a good day to wear the 100th Anniversary shirt if you want. Read More
