President Tim asked Secretary Diane Warrender to give her report. She reported our visitors for the day were Phyllis Pate guest of Hap Ambrose, and Tim Wilson, past member. Additionally, two Rotarians were celebrating their birthdays this week, Audrey Alese on July 13 and Pat Sorrell on July 14. Neither were in attendance to be serenaded. Those celebrating their Club anniversaries were Charlie Hoover 07/08/2020, and Doug Wolfe 7/10/93. Diane announced the 50th Wedding Anniversary for John and Susan Smith. She had seen the announcement in the local newspaper with a picture of their wedding day. She commented how tall and slim John appeared and his long hairstyle! Also, she had found some interesting statistics on DAKdb about our club membership age. Ages 0-29;1, 30-39;4, 40-49;5, 50-59;8, 60-69;21, 70-79;22 and 80+;5. A good indication we need younger members! The attendance for the day was 33 Rotarians.

Tim had added a new "positive remarks" item to the schedule last week, and today he asked Bill Hayes for his words to pass on. Bill said he felt "to live by the words of the 4-Way Test" could be no better goal for each of us. Tim also added he had spoken to Dennis Marquardt recently as he has not been able to attend Rotary meetings in the last month. Dennis reported he was healing and hoped to be back soon. Give him a call to let him know he is being thought of. (723-3112)

President Tim asked for committee reports. Fundraiser Gary Lazorick chair, reported he had talked with the golf cart business and hopes to have the cart ready by the next meeting. Tickets will be available so that we can start selling them soon. He hopes to have the cart paid for by the Seafood Festival, so that all sells after that will be profit.

Dale Elks, Foundation co-chair, asked Bill Rogerson to come forward to accept his Paul Harris Society pin Plus 5! Great dedication Bill!

Pam Hilbert, Service Project chair, is looking for new members for her committee. Tim had passed around the sign-up sheet for the various committees, and she encouraged others to add their name to the Service Projects committee. She has also asked Rotarians to seek out grants from non-profit groups.

Tim announced to the members the program for the day was a "networking" event. Each member had received a number as they checked in, and that number corresponded with large numbers placed at each table. He asked each member to take their lunch and go sit at the table that was the number they had been given earlier. There was a bit of grumbling from some, but all changed their seats. Tim then gave a question he wanted those at the tables to discuss with their partners seated across from them. His intent was to encourage more conversation with members they would not be usually sitting with. He continued the mix-up by having one side of the tables change locations again. A new question was presented and this process continued thru 4 questions. It was certainly a good opportunity for new conversations to be had with different members as most seem to sit in the same places at our weekly meetings.

Gene McClendon gave a rousing Happy Dollars with his usual humor. Many laughs and money were exchanged!!

Guest Phyllis Pate did not win the 50/50 money, so onto next week.

Next meeting Tuesday, July 16th. Nancy Barbee, District Global Grants Chair

Secretary Diane Warrender
