Morehead City Noon Rotary Meeting Minutes February 13, 2024

Minutes of the February 13, 2024 Noon Rotary meeting

The Tuesday Noon Rotary meeting at the Sanitary Restaurant was opened by our President, Tom Hussman.

Greeter â€” Roger Latham
Prayer â€” Dale Elks
Pledge â€” Chris Mashburn
4-Way Test â€” Dennis Marquardt

The member minute was presented by Gary Lazorick. His topic was "Times I almost died!" He recounted several incidents when he felt he had barely missed death, once on a diving trip in the Bahamas. As Dive Master on a boat, the boat and crew were lost in a gale, and he was not onboard that day. Again in Chicago while working on a construction site, the dirt wall near them, when working in a dug out area, started to collapse, and they all struggled to get out and made it out alive. There were several other "hair-raising events" in his past life. He is a man of many trades and has traveled a lot, with varied careers before ending up here, in Carteret County.

Foundation Chairman Dale Elks, presented a 5 times Paul Harris Fellow pin to Charlton Burns. Well done Charlton!

Fill-in secretary Diane Warrender, reported there was a 60% attendance for the day with 42 people present. There were also 7 guests attending: Ray Hall, Lee Stiles, Pete Benton, Al Nelson, Monica Blocker, new manager of Walmart and speaker County Manager Tommy Barnes.

Doug Wolfe of the Membership Committee, inducted our newest member to the Noon Rotary Club, Hap Ambrose. Hap has been attending our noon meetings for awhile and we are glad to see him become a member.

President Tom reminded everyone about the Oyster Roast to be held on Thursday, February 22nd, at 145 Eckerd Road, (previous Camp Sam Hatcher) – an extension of Camp Albemarle. He asked for people to sign up to bring sides: desserts, covered dishes or soups.

David Walker introduced our speaker for the meeting: County Manager Tommy Barnes. David said he had asked Mr. Barnes not to talk about politics, but the history of the Battle of the Bulge in World War II, in Germany. Both David and Tommy are history buffs and David felt the members would enjoy this presentation. Mr. Barnes gave a very interesting account of the events surrounding the famous battle and a lot of details most of us would not be aware of. He talked about Gen. George Patton and his role in the conflicts. Also, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, who, after the war, became President of the United States. It was interesting that several of our members had direct knowledge and connection with relatives who had been part of the battles of World War II. We all enjoyed the “History” lesson.

Jim Kraft was scheduled to do the Happy Dollar event. However, he was not in attendance. So Tom requested a short version and accepted Happy Dollars from the members.

We were all glad to be back to the Sanitary Restaurant again. Our next meeting is Tuesday, February 20th at noon at the Sanitary.

Assistant Secretary – Diane Warrender
