Global Partners in Peace Club Quarterly Briefing on Ukraine - 6/1

Ukraine crisis: 10 Years of Displacement and the Future of Ukraine

Date: Saturday, June 1, 2024
Time: 11 am ET

Register in advance with this Zoom link.

Global Partners in Peace (GPP) Rotary Club is introducing this quarterly humanitarian briefing to bring new voices and perspectives to Rotary and to shine light on critical issues from our international perspective. Speakers will include:

- Yana Ischenko, Communication Officer, Public Health and Emergency Response, Ministry of Health, Ukraine
- Julia Demydovych, World Relief (WR), Member of the Ukrainian diaspora

Participants in the humanitarian briefings are invited to speak with authenticity while also considering that GPP's goal is not to polarize or further divide people on issues, but rather, educate and invite them into more discussions.

Does your club have year-end Club Awards?

Each club has annual awards for their club members. Please share those awards with the rest of the district by submitting them to DG Allen or our district Awards Czar, DGN Andi Young, and we'll make sure they get posted for everyone to see!

Three Clubs Earn Zones 33/34 Public Image Citation!

Congratulations to the following clubs that earned the Zones 33/34 Public Image Citation for the 2023-24 Rotary year!

Club	Level
Rotary Club of Fayetteville	Bronze
Rotary Club of Jacksonville	Platinum
Rotary Club of Whiteville	Bronze

This recognition is a testament to the hard work, dedication, and creativity of these clubs in enhancing Rotary's public image. Their commitment to service and the innovative ways in which each of them have communicated Rotary's mission and values to the community are truly commendable.

We look forward to seeing more of the remarkable work that your clubs will undoubtedly continue to produce!
