Last Week's Program

Jerry Bernard with the Charles Lea Center informed the Club of their long-standing work. Over 1500 folks are served in Spartanburg County, but their operations are growing. They are now serving people in NC, Tennessee, and Ohio. They were one of the first in the country to use Innovative Services, which supports individuals via the use of technology. Because of this leadership stance, they've been asked to consult all over the country. Have you eaten lettuce at a local restaurant? It may have been grown through the hydroponic program at the Charles Lea Center!

Upcoming Programs

Aug. 16 TBA

Charles Clementson, VP at Colonial Trust Company and Charles Lea Foundation Board member, provides an overview of the Foundation's role. In the past 10 years the Foundation has provided $1.2M to the Center. An exciting development is the upcoming nature preserve at Lake Blalock that will allow accessibility for people with disabilities. There are several upcoming events that look to be a lot of fun and help the Foundation reach its financial goals.
