Last Week's Program

Amy Barch told us about Turn 90, a nonprofit social enterprise that combines job training, supportive services and peer mentorship. Their vision is a future where every person leaving prison has the skills and opportunities to live free from incarceration. Businesses are at the heart of their work, providing jobs for men returning from incarceration and generating revenue to fund program activities.

Upcoming Programs

Dec. 10 NO LUNCH MEETING
HOLIDAY SOCIAL Wednesday, Dec. 11– 6-8:30

Dec. 17 Christmas Presentation
- Rev. Alan Dyer and Rabbi Yossi Leibowitz

President Louis Smith presents a check for $18,350 to Troy Hannah on behalf of the Spartanburg County Foundation, which was raised by our Club to support the disaster relief effort for hurricane Helene. The Spartanburg County Disaster Relief Fund has granted $186,000 in 6 weekly grant cycles to 20 Spartanburg County nonprofits providing direct relief and recovery services to Spartanburg County residents.
