Last Week's Program

Last week we heard a presentation from Carol Easterling with FAVOR, https://favorupstate.org/, who told us the name stands for Faces and Voices of Recovery. They serve 5,000 individuals each year, all free of charge. "This is a family disease, and the whole family should be involved in recovery." Nick Wildrick also spoke to the Club about his program of reintroducing men into society after being incarcerated and how FAVOR works with the family of addicts. Five individuals who have gone through the program now own their own homes.
