Last Week's Program

Diane Lee with Channel 7 News told the Club stories about helping folks in the community with consumer affairs issues. "In times of need, it's that one thing you can do to step up. That is what keeps me going," she said. We were treated to a couple of songs by Diane, who is an accomplished vocalist. She spoke about the upcoming Spartanburg Sings event, a signature event which is an honor chorus of middle schoolers. This is the 15th year and Diane has been involved since the beginning. This year it happens Feb. 1 at Spartanburg High School.
