Today's Speaker

Rotary Readers

Ms. Blake, Mrs. Overton, Mrs. Etheridge, Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Tanner join us today with their students as special guests to celebrate Rotary Readers.

Rotarian of the Week

Ayla Hemeon

Ayla was born on November 20th in Nurnberg, Germany and joined our Club April 29, 2016, but was a prior member of the Georgetown Breakfast Rotary Club. She attended Augsburg American High School in Germany and attended Susquehanna University in Pennsylvania.

Ayla is the Workforce Development Director for the Waccamaw Regional Council of Governments. She serves on the Board of Directors for the Georgetown Chamber of Commerce and is a member of the CATE Advisory Council.

Ayla has two daughters, Kelsea and Tara. Her hobbies include watching her girls play sports and just spending time with them, going to the beach, reading, and jogging.

Upcoming Speakers

May 7 - Lt Governor Pamela Evette

May 14 - Keith Willcox, Georgetown Kraft Credit Union

May 21 - Jean Petersee and the Interact Club, Georgetown High School

Shag Festival

Upcoming Events

May 10 - Service at Friendship Place

May 13 - Board Meeting

Thanks to all of our members and sponsors, this year's event was a huge success. We strive each year to make the event even better the following year and your help is needed to do that.

Please take a few minutes to think about ways that the Shag Festival can be improved. Please plan to stay for a few minutes after the meeting today to share your ideas. If you cannot stay, please send your suggestions and ideas to Pete Little (aplittle@alumni.citadel.edu).
