ROTARIAN OF THE YEAR

This annual award is designated for the one Rotarian in our club who clearly stands out in demonstrating Service Above Self, and principled commitment to the Four-Way Test. A nominee should be an outstanding club member who has made significant contributions to the mission and operation of our club, and to one or more avenues of Community or International Service.

The Rotarian of the Year award is given to a member who exhibits Service Above Self in their daily activities and who promotes Rotary by their actions and involvements. This can be accomplished through one major activity in club service, in multiple activities, or by serving on several committees and should be highly visible in the weekly activities of the club.

Nominations are being accepted through June 1st and the award will be made at our year-end meeting on June 29th. The form was emailed to members last week, but can also be downloaded HERE. Nominations can be emailed or submitted at an upcoming meeting.

UPCOMING SPEAKERS

May 4th - Zachary Marshall, Community Outreach Director for Teach My People

The Rotary Club of Georgetown recently inducted two new members

Despite the challenges resulting from COVID, the Rotary Club of Georgetown recently inducted two additional new members, Sheila Dickinson and Nick Masuda.

Sheila Dickinson is the owner of Prestige Painting in Georgetown, SC and was sponsored by Rotarian, Angie Kohl.

She is a graduate of the University of South Carolina with a BA in art studio and is a member of the Georgetown County Chamber of Commerce, PDCA (Paint & Decorating Contractors of America), PTO for the The Georgetown

School of Arts & Sciences.

A California native, Nick is the managing editor of the Post and Courier, focused on supporting six reporters, while also working with the community in representing its interests.

Nick is a graduate of UC Santa Barbara and has worked as a journalist in California, Maine, New Jersey and Florida, where he worked in various roles including management, design, reporting, photography and web development. Nick was sponsored by Rotarian, Michael Yip.

◆We are very pleased to welcome Sheila and Nick into our club,◆ said Angie Kohl, Club President. ◆Their background and commitment to our community will be a great asset to our mission of providing Service Above Self.◆

Volunteer Opportunity at Rotary National Golf Invitational Tournament

June 11, 2021 Rotary District 7770 will host what may be the best Rotary National Golf Championship ever, after all it is going to be at the Golf Capital of the World on the Grand Strand at Murrells Inlet, South Carolina on a Clyde Johnson masterpiece, the Wachesaw Plantation East. They are seeking volunteers from clubs to help throughout the day in addition to sponsors and players.
