Sheryl Shaughnessy: On June 29 Stephanie Phillips will be our new District Governor. The event will be in Branford at the Woodwinds. Cost is $80. It is worth your time to go.

Pat Matteson The United Illuminating Power Line Controversy continues and continues... Yikes, this electricity issue is shocking.

Pat also brings us up to date on the Habitat for Humanity project. They will have a showing soon. See the latest picture below.... (Picture Below)

("Picture Below" is now "Picture Above") = Alon Sapir let us know that "Pass the Gavel" will be on June 26th. =

We elected a new President, Brandan McKeon and our entire leadership team.

Just Because:

John Lee reminds us that the Rotary International Foundation donations should be in by June 30th.

Vance Hancock notes Rena and Chuck are attending, and is happy that Brendan is our new president.

Janet Barillaro is excited that the bright thing is the sky is now shining. Yes, it has been that long...

Rena Fortuna is happy for Brendan being president.

Sheryl Shaughnessy congratulates Brendan.

Peter Penczer is happy his son is visiting, and notes that the Audubon Sanctuary on Unquowa Road is the oldest song bird sanctuary in the United States. (It is so close to the truck noise emanating from Interstate 95 no one has heard a bird since 1957.)

Noor Deeb is noting that she has two sons in college. She has not opened up a "Go Fund Me" account on the internet, but she should.

Brendan McKeon: thank you for your confidence.

Bob Vossler is happy his family is in from Colorado. There was a christening of his four-month-old grandchild and he celebrated his 68th wedding anniversary. Phew!!!

Tom Sansone is happy we have a leadership team for the club.

= Alon Sap

Alon Sapir introduces Ron Holtz who reviews the Rotary garments that are now available. All are of the highest quality.

No Raffle and we will see y'all at Pass the Gavel on June 26th.
