Westport Rotary is having its 100th Anniversary Gala Party Event. It is on March 7th, which is a Thursday. It is $100 for the 100th celebration. (How appropriate). They are considering it a big deal, and it is. Of course, it did take 100 years before it could be pulled off.

Just Because:

Sheryl Shaughnessy discussed the four scholarships of $6,000 each.

=

Bruce Carter had a Just Because dollar just because he saw a wild Bob Cat.

=

Tim Russell waxed eloquent about the Leonard Bernstein Tribute held at the Fairfield Museum.

=

Doug Williams thanks Bridgeport Hospital for a good experience he had when he had a heart ablation. (sp)

=

Tracy McMillan is celebrating the big 6-0. John Lee leads us all in the forgotten tradition of singing "Happy Birthday." Thank heaven most of us remembered the words.

Guest Speaker

Steve Elworthy introduced our speaker Mike Beloff. Mike discussed the issues of having a special needs child who is "aging out" of the school system programs. Rarely has the Rotary audience paid such rapt attention to a program.

=

This was one of our many luncheon programs that are brought to us by Steve and other Rotarians. Please help by letting Steve know of anyone who might present helpful knowledge to our club.

Added Attraction: There was a PETS meeting in New Haven Tuesday night and Bruce Carter represented the club. In a nutshell, our Rotary District is in good hands. Crystal Engran and Stephanie Philips were in attendance. Here's Stephanie's graphic.
