Past President ALBERT BLATCH

1929 - 2023

It is with sadness that we mourn the passing of our 44th Club President Albert Blatch last week. Albert was very active in Rotary our Club President in 1988/89, Charter President of the Glenmore Park Rotary Club and instrumental in the setting up of two local Probus Clubs. A selection of tributes posted on our Facebook page

Pamela Noal
RIP well respected community member and thank you

Paul Allen
He was president when I joined Rotary he was a real champion of a man. Our thoughts go out to his family. 🙏🙏🙏

John Todd
Sorry to hear the news. I had the privilege of working with Albert when he was a volunteer at the Penrith BEC sitting on panels to help the unemployed and all he wanted in return was a beer at the end of the day! Last saw him a couple of months ago when he was in hospital and we talked about our times together. RIP Albert.

Albert Blatch was a shining example of one of the Aims of Rotary "Service above Self". Sincere sympathy to the Blatch family on this sad occasion.

Trevor Hall
Certainly very sad news - Albert was much involved with Rotary both at club and District level in his time- extremely community minded

As Ambassador at the Penrith Civic Centre, was most privileged to welcome this respected man to many special functions at Council. Rest In Peace, and thank you for your fine Service to our Community.
