PENRITH MAYOR, LAUNCHES the 2023 POLICE OFFICER OF THE YEAR

Last Thursday, Trish Hitchen Mayor of Penrith officially launched the 2023 Police Officer of the Year at the St. Mary Police Station.

Trish said, "having spent 25 years in the Police Force, I know just how hard our police officers work, and how much recognition of this kind means". "This awards program gives the community the chance to recognise outstanding acts of bravery, courtesy and kindness", "to shine a light on their professional excellence and dedication to the people in our region".

Highlights from our... Last Meeting

The awards will be presented at a ceremony on 7 June 2023 at St Marys Band Club.

The Police Officer of the Year awards are a Rotary project. The award is based on the Rotary motto "Service above Self" and recognises outstanding acts of courage, courtesy, kindness, understanding and devotion to duty.

In 2017 the St Marys Police Local Area Command and the Penrith Police Local Area Command were amalgamated. This year the Rotary Clubs of Penrith, St Marys, Penrith Valley and Nepean have combined to recommence the awards.

We are asking members of the public and Police Force to nominate an officer who they think deserves recognition for their efforts during 2022. In their nomination we would like them to explain what the officer did to deserve that recognition.

This can be done by writing a letter or completing a nomination form which is available from St Marys and Penrith Police Stations.

Mary Rotarian Lesley Daly & Inspector Natalie Gilbody

With Phill Martin, Chief Inspector Daniel Wiggins & St Marys Rotarian Colman Young
