MONDAY 22nd August 6:30 for a 7:00 p.m. start

To be held at the COFFEE CLUB NEPEAN RIVER

Our Guest Speaker will be:-

RICHARD FOX MBE

A British slalom canoeist who competed for Great Britain through until the mid-1990s. He won eleven medals at the ICF Canoe Slalom World Championships with ten golds and also won the overall World Cup title three times.

He moved to Australia in 1998 to take up a position as the National Head Coach for the Sydney Olympics. Richard's intervention in a worldwide campaign had been instrumental in preventing canoeing from being axed from the 2000 Sydney Olympics after the Australian Olympic Committee determined there to be inadequate facilities and insufficient funds to address the requirements for hosting an Olympic slalom competition. The result of Fox' campaigning was the construction of the Penrith Whitewater Stadium in western Sydney. From 2001, Richard was also the Australian Institute of Sport and National Team Head Coach leading the slalom team at the 2004 Summer Olympics.

A Post on Facebook this week.....

A proud achievement for the three Penrith Rotary Clubs was the establishment of Hope Cottage to provide accommodation for family members to be close to a patient in the Cancer Care Unit or the Neo Natal Intensive unit who lives out of the area

THANK YOU LEVI 🐼 | Coonamble local, Levi was given an interesting ultimatum by his school teacher, keep his mullet or shave it and raise money for a charity of his choice. Levi chose the latter and worked hard to raise an incredible amount of $1,000, which will go towards helping our patients and their families at Hope Cottage, Nepean Hospital.

Levi remembers visiting his Pop, Peter, who would travel from Coonamble to Nepean Cancer Care and would stay at Hope Cottage.

Thank you Levi for your kind donation!

The Vision of PP Ray Boyle was finally completed and open on the 2nd June 2005. After 9 years and the combined efforts of the three Penrith Rotary Clubs, saw the completion of the clubs major project "Rotary Cottage" which due to concerns with the use of the term "Rotary" was renamed "Hope Cottage". Without the dedicated efforts of our own member, Architect and PP Charles Glanville, Trust President Frank Portelli and Willy Piepers, the project may not have reached completion.
